Olive: made local contacts and wireless contact which they maintained for 13 days. They were in a position to prolong their stay but were ambushed by security forces as the result of the murder of Communist officials in their district, and broken up. Three surviving members exfiltrated separately and brought back some useful information.

- (k) Teams with w/t sets and comments on their success: Barley's set could not be made to transmit though they could hear their base. Therefore they buried it.
